

Grosvenor Nursing Jobs for SCLD Community Learning Disabilities in 2012

Nursing agency Grosvenor Nursing has nurses' jobs available nationally for Community Learning Disabilities staff in January 2012. Grosvenor is one of the UK's leading nursing agencies for temporary staff provision for mental health care services. It provides high quality mental healthcare staff nationwide through its network of offices. Established in 1986, Grosvenor has built a reputation for delivering consistent service to clients including HM Prison Service, Primary Care Trusts and Mental Health Trusts too.

Qualified nurses and HCAs should register contact details on-line in the first instance at Grosvenor Nursing.

Grosvenor supplies HCA health care workers for short, medium and long term assignments. Amongst the top UK nursing agencies, Grosvenor also recruits specialist mental health nurses and general nurses for permanent posts – and provides an emergency support service, to meet demand at very short notice.

Nursing agency jobs are currently available for the following positions: SPAN Special Practitioner Adult Nursing, SPMH Mental Health, SPCN Children, SPLD Learning Disabilities; SPGP General Practice; SCMh Community Mental Health; SCLD Community Learning Disabilities; SPCC Community Children; SPOH Occupational Health; SPSN School; V100 Independent Nurse Prescribing; V200 Extended Prescribing; V300 Extended/Supplementary Prescribing; and LPE Lecturer/Practice Educator.

Grosvenor is recruiting SCLD staff throughout England for HM Prison Service, Primary Care Trusts and Mental Health Trusts - including in Birmingham, Bradford, Bristol, Cardiff, Coventry, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Leeds, Leicester, Liverpool and London – as well as Manchester, Nottingham, Sheffield, Sunderland and Wakefield in the UK.

The medical staffing specialists have issued a guide on implementing the AWR (Agency Workers Regulations) for medical staff working on a temporary basis with the agency. For assignments after October 1st 2011 agency workers are entitled to the same basic working and employment conditions as directly employed staff with a comparable grade or role in the same organisation.
